

EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of Oklahoma, Kevin Stitt, has implemented a three-phased approach titled “Open Up and Recover Safely (OURS)” to re-open Oklahoma’s economy that is based on scientific modeling from public health experts, is intended to mitigate risk of resurgence, is intended to protect Oklahoma’s most vulnerable citizens from the threat of COVID-19, and will work under guidance from the Oklahoma Department of Commerce, the Oklahoma Department of Health, and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC); and

WHEREAS, data from Canadian County continues to show one of the lowest rates of new cases of COVID-19 of any of the metropolitan counties in the state: and

WHEREAS, I, Shelli Selby, Mayor of the City of Yukon, taking into account the proclamation signed on March 16, 2020 declaring an emergency and limiting the activities of the City of Yukon and encouraging all citizens to follow protective guidelines and protect themselves and their families, along with the updated proclamations of March 23, March 25, April 6, and April 23, 2020;

THEREFORE, I, Shelli Selby, Mayor of the City of Yukon, Oklahoma, pursuant to the authority vested in me Section 74-98 of the Ordinances of the City of Yukon and by Oklahoma Law as set out in II OS 22-120 and the Oklahoma Emergency Management Act of 2003, hereby declare and order the following additional guidelines with the opening of businesses effective immediately:

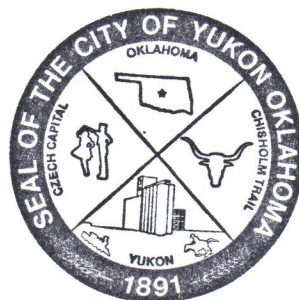

Section One: The City of Yukon encourages all of its businesses to re-open as soon as possible, in order to stimulate the local economy while maintaining safe practices.

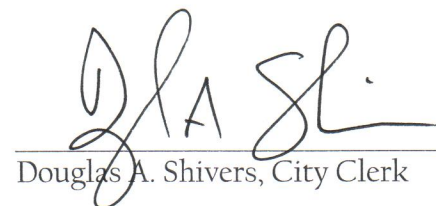

Section Two: The City of Yukon suggests that all residents continue to maintain safe practices to avoid contracting and/or spreading COVID-19.

Section Three: The City of Yukon intends to follow the remaining guidelines for other types of businesses and public access to other facilities as outlined in Phase III of the OURS plan.

Given under my hand and Seal of the City of Yukon this 27th day of May, 2020.

Shelli Selby, Mayor

Douglas A. Shivers, City Clerk
